SUBJECT: Welcome

Dear Colleagues,

It is my pleasure to welcome you to the NASA-Glenn fourth annual Microgravity Environment Interpretation Tutorial (MEIT). It is my hope that you will find the tutorial very beneficial to your educational enrichment. This class is made up of participants from 14 different countries with a rich background in microgravity such as: life science, fluid physics, combustion, biotech, material, payload developers and so on. So, do take the opportunity while here to get to know your colleagues for I'm sure you will learn a lot from each other through such interaction.

The PIMS staff is here to assist you, in case you have any problems or questions. So, please let us know, if we can make your stay here more enjoyable.

Again, I wish you all an enjoyable three days in Cleveland!

Kenol Jules
PIMS Project Scientist
